

Adam Gulliver

Barrister

Year of Call: 2016

01604 210979

Specialist areas

Adoption and Special Guardianship
Care Proceedings
Child Arrangements
Domestic Violence

Profile

Adam regularly represents parties in Public and Private Children's Law and Family Law Act matters, both at an interim stage and within final hearings. Adam has significant experience of representing a range of parties in such matters, including parents, local authorities, children (with or without a Children's Guardian) and grandparents and regularly deals with cases that concern the following issues:

- Chronic Neglect
- Substance Misuse (including FDAC proceedings)
- Adoption proceedings
- Special Guardianship
- Domestic Violence
- Intractable contact disputes
- Child Arrangements cases with an international element
- Prohibited Steps and Specific Issue Orders

Education

University:
Bangor University (2014) – LLB – 1st Class

Law School:
BPP Manchester (2016) – BPTC – Outstanding

Memberships

Family Law Bar Association
Middle Temple

What our clients are saying

Adam is noted for his ability to bring a considerate and client-focused approach to his work, whilst ensuring that his clients still receive the pragmatic, clear, evidence-based guidance that they deserve. Adam has a reputation for his thoroughness, both in terms of his preparation and his ability to give advice to lay and professional clients alike.

