Profile

Elizabeth Gooderham is a very experienced advocate who, after an early career at the bar undertaking both criminal and family law now specialises solely in all aspects of child-care law.

Elizabeth specialises in public and complex private law proceedings. Elizabeth is a thorough and detailed advocate with an ability to get to the heart of the matter. She has a sensitive and understanding approach when dealing with vulnerable clients, including those with mental health difficulties, young parents and competent children.

Elizabeth acts on behalf of local authorities, parents, children's guardians, competent children and intervenors in a wide range of cases, including:

- Serious non-accidental injury
- Sexual abuse
- Concurrent criminal proceedings
- Chronic neglect
- Drug and alcohol abuse (including FDAC proceedings)
- Parents with mental health difficulties

- Adoption
- Special Guardianship
- Domestic Violence
- Child arrangements disputes
- Parental alienation
