

Senate House Chambers

Senate House Chambers Barristers are regulated by the Bar Standards Board. Accordingly, we are required to provide the following information about price, service and redress on our website:

- All professional, licensed access and lay clients are welcome to contact Chambers to obtain a quotation for legal services, either by telephone on (01604) 210979 or by email at clerks@senatehousechambers.com ;
- Counsel's fees are commensurate with Legal Aid rates for publicly funded work and are provided pursuant to either a fixed brief and refresher fee or by hourly rate for privately funded work;
- Chambers specialises in Family Law work although can also provide legal services for civil and criminal matters in some circumstances. Enquiries should be referred to our Clerking team in the first instance either by telephone on (01604) 210979 or by email at clerks@senatehousechambers.com;
- Timescales for advocacy services will be dictated by the Court. Written work will be completed within timescales as agreed at the time of booking and will depend upon the availability of the barrister instructed;
- Information about our complaints procedure, your right to complain to the Legal Ombudsman (LeO) and how to do so, and associated time limits for making a complaint can be found on our website;
- Decision data is available on the Legal Ombudsman's website and can be found here: <https://www.legalombudsman.org.uk/raising-standards/data-and-decisions/>
- The barrister's register can be found here: <https://www.barstandardsboard.org.uk/regulatory-requirements/the-barristers'-register/>
