Profile

Daniel Sheridan is an experienced child law practitioner specialising in public and private law proceedings. Daniel takes a compassionate and focused approach to his lay and professional clients. Daniel places the utmost importance on giving balanced, clear, evidenced-based advice to empower clients to make informed, mindful decisions. In the often emotionally charged and stressful environment of the Family Court, clients should feel enabled to make the right choices for their case.

Daniel acts on behalf of local authorities, parents, children's guardians, competent children and intervenors in a wide range of cases:

- Serious non-accidental injury
- Fabricated and/or induced illness, including hospital intervenors
- Female Genital Mutilation
- Sexual abuse
- Concurrent criminal proceedings
- Human Rights Act claims arising from public law proceedings
- Chronic neglect
- Hearing impaired families
- Drug and alcohol abuse (including FDAC proceedings)
- Adoption including adoptions with international elements
- Special Guardianship
- Domestic Violence
- Child arrangements disputes, including intractable contact disputes
