

Ruby Jamieson

Barrister

Year of Call: 2019

rj@senatehousechambers.com

01604 210979

Inn of Court: Inner Temple

Education:

LLM Professional Legal Practice, BPP (Distinction)

Bar Professional Training Course, BPP (Very Competent)

LLB Law, University of Surrey (2:1)

Scholarships and Awards:

Exhibition Award, Inner Temple, March 2018

Duke of Edinburgh Entrance Award, Inner Temple, March 2018

Advocacy Award, BPP University, April 2018

Bernard Sunley Prize, Pupillage Award, Knights of the Round Table, August 2019

Top 10 Best Oralist, Telders Public International Law Moot Competition, May 2019

Top 10 Applicant Team, Telders Public International Law Moot Competition, May 2019

Background:

Ruby is currently in her 2nd six of pupillage working under the supervision of Lianne Murphy. She receives instructions in both public and private family law.

Prior to joining Senate House Chambers, Ruby worked for a charity in Hounslow specialising in facilitating the integration of Central Asian families into British Society, she assisted with immigration, family and social security matters.

During her studies Ruby spent a year at the Université Catholique de Lille in Lille, France where she studied international and European law and developed her French language skills.

Ruby is also an accredited civil and commercial mediator with the Bar Council.

